CHATHAM ON CAPE COD

Those who love and roam Cape Cod will have no difficulty in recognizing our photos as Chatham. Originally roamed by the Sauquatucket and Monomoyick tribes of Indians, its original name was Monomoy after the Indian tribe until the town was formed in 1712 and named Chatham. The town was an early communication point to ships the world over as it was the site of the early Marconi Wireless Station with call letters W.C.C., still familiar to ships today.

The town was explored by Samuel de Champlain in 1606 who landed on the Stage
Harbor beach and contacted the Monomoyick Indians. Later, in 1656, William Nickerson bought from those same Indians the tract which is Chatham. Nickerson named it Monomoy. The town contains the Atwood

Selectman John DeCosta presided solo to transact routine business at the May 24th session.

BID FOR NEW FIXTURES

Peter B. Perkins submitted a bid of $185.00 to install new fixtures in the rest rooms at the Town Wharf. These facilities have been the constant target of vandals in repeated incidents. The latest break into the facility resulted in the theft of the plumbing fixtures. Executive Secretary Stephen Lombard reported to Mr. DeCosta that Ronald Scott is welding on steel doors this week.

Robert H. MacLeod, owner of Hillside Motel; and Arthur McLean, owner of Mattapoissett Boatyard, applied for signs located off of the business premises. The meeting was attended by Adeline Santos, Anna Askew, Robert H. MacLeod, William N. Dexter, Arlene C. Dexter and Albert Benjamin. No objection was made to any of the sign locations and all applications were taken under advisement before forwarding to State authorities. A recent change in the law governing signs - Sec. 3E3 of the General Laws under Special Permits returns home rule to the towns for the issuing of these permits by putting the Selectmen in charge.

THANK YOU! The response to our bus drive has been gratifying. While we did not reach our goal (about 33%) we are most grateful to all who donated their time and money.

The annual Board of Directors' meeting was held and Mr. James Duffield, Special Needs teacher in the Old Rochester District, was appointed to the board. Mr. Duffield has been active with the club for some time.

It was decided that we cannot afford to purchase jackets for members at this time; however anyone who wishes to purchase a Track Club jacket may do so. More information on this will be available at the June 1st membership meeting.

A general enrollment meeting will be held at 8:00 P.M. on Wednesday, June 1st, at the Center School. Anyone 10 years old and older who wishes to participate this summer should attend this meeting. The club this season will operate with a junior and senior division.

SUMMER PROGRAMS

Include a YMCA program in your summer schedule of activities. The YMCA has many fine recreational and skill development programs throughout the summer. Many programs are available through the special reduced "summer membership".

Men may keep in shape with the regularly scheduled fitness class at 5:15-6:00 P.M. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday starting June 13 for ten weeks. Women's fitness classes meet at 9:30-10:30 A.M. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, or Tuesday and Thursday at 7:00-7:45 P.M. This is a continuous course which you may join at any time.

Do you have a pain in the neck, or hip or back? The Y's Way to a Healthy Back may be the answer to continued pain relief. Developed by Dr. Hans Kraus, M.C., noted back specialist, the program is designed to methodically and gently ease your back into good shape. The class meets on Monday and Wednesday for six weeks at 7:00-7:45 P.M. starting June 13.

Increased flexibility is only one of the benefits of yoga. Learn to relax and relieve daily tensions, strengthen and tone the body. The yoga class meets on Tuesday at 7:00-9:00 P.M. for ten weeks starting June 14.

Exercise in the refreshing coolness of the Y pool. The women's swimnastics class meets on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 9:30-10:00 A.M. for ten weeks. No swimming ability is needed. The water is supportive while being resistive to movements. It is nature's exercise machine.

Enjoy the summer more by learning to swim; or, improve your swimming skills. Men's lessons meet on Monday or Wednesday at 7:00-7:45 P.M. for ten weeks. Women's lessons meet on Wednesday at 10:00-10:45 A.M. or Thursday, 7:45-8:00 P.M. for ten weeks.

Perhaps you seek more creativity in your activity? Women's synchronized swimming or water ballet certainly offers a vast opportunity to express yourself through movement ex-

SMU Summer Theater

PULITZER PRIZE WINNING PLAY AT SMU

The Pulitzer Prize winning play, "That Championship Season", starring William Caine of the Trinity Square Repertory Company, will be presented at Southeastern Massachusetts University on June 9, 10, 11, and 12.

The play is the first of three productions in the SMU Theatre Company's '77 summer season.

Curtain goes up at 8:00 P.M. in the SMU Auditorium.

"That Championship Season", nationally recognized as one of the most powerful dramas of the decade, also won the New York Drama Critics Circle Award. The story presents a brutal look into the lives of a group of former high school basketball players who meet in the home of their coach twenty years after their championship game.

Directed by Angus Bailey, the cast includes, besides William Caine as the coach, Barry Smith, Tony Ferreira, Bill Begley, and Curt Pollitt.

Little League Baseball

Monday, May 23, began the 5th week of Little League Baseball with the Wanderers overtaking the Blues 11-2. The victory was pitched by "Putt" LaPlante, who also scored 3 runs. For the Blues Henry Ouimet had 2 hits and Mike Rosa continued his good hitting. In Rochester diamond play a 2 hit pitching performance by Steve Lopes of the Jets, Mike Vulgares had 2 R.B.I.s in a 4 to 1 victory over the Royals. Mark Sanford, in his first performance as a catcher, played errorless ball. George Kirby for the Royals in a losing effort, turned in a successful double play. Tuesday, the Browns overtook the Jets. Wednesday, with Billy Haymaker, Scott Litchfield, Greg Loudon, Dana Barrows and Dave Andrews hitting, the Greens took the Wanderers 9

BARBERSHOP SINGING CONCERT

A Barbership Singing Concert will be presented by the Harpoon Harmonizers, the New Bedford chapter chorus of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbership Quartet Singing in America, Inc.
(S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A.) in the Westport Middle School Auditorium, 400 Old County Road,
Head of Westport, Sunday evening, June 12th, at 7:30.

True to the organization's motto of "Keep America Singing", this men's chorus, under the direction of Ken Bastien, will sing a program of old Irving Berlin favorites in that fine close harmony barbership style, as well as giving the audience a chance to join in with some community singing before the evening's over.

VOLUNTEER AWARD CEREMONY

Thirty-seven adult volunteers who served a minimum of fifty hours at Tobey Hospital during the past year were recognized at the Annual Volunteer Award Ceremony held Tuesday, May 24th, at the Tobey Homestead. Mr. W.E. Bishop, Administrator, was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Lionberger, chairman of Volunteer Activities, in presenting pins to those who completed their first fifty hours and bars to those who received pins in the past.

Recognition for outstanding performance throughout the year was made by assigning pourers at the table. Following tradition, Mrs. Lionel LaRocque, the volunteer who completed the most hours, was honored by cutting the "Volunteer Cake". Mrs. LaRocque was also singled out as Tobey's first volunteer to receive a bar for five thousand hours.

A total of 84 adults donated 9120 hours to the hospital in the following areas: Blood bank, cafeteria, laboratory, chest clinic, dietary, emergency, gift shop, library, lobby, nursing, personnel development, outpatient, admitting, and x-ray.

Among those receiving awards were Nancy Douglas and Alene Lionberger from Rochester; Ada Drake, Catharine Hall, Priscilla Lacey, Harriet Mason and Janet Oyaas from Marion; and Edith Halkyard from Mattapoisett.

MASSACHUSETTS MARITIME TRAIL TO BE DEDICATED TODAY, JUNE 1

Official dedication ceremonies for the Massachusetts Maritime Trail are being held today, Wednesday, June 1, from 11:00 to 11:30 A.M. on board the poop deck of Mayflower II at the State Pier in Plymouth.
Plymouth County Commissioner Chairman
Gerard F. Burke will present an official Massachusetts Maritime Trail flag which will then be flown high above the decks of Mayflower II.

The Massachusetts Maritime Trail is a do-it-yourself itinerary of coastal attractions stretching from Newburyport to Fall River.
It traces the past and present history of the Commonwealth's seacoast communities, focusing on famous sea battles, early commerce and the China trade, the fishing industry, shipbuilding, and landmark homes and churches.

The dedication of the Massachusetts Maritime Trail is being held in conjunction with "Mayflower II Day" which commemorates the voyage of Mayflower II from England to Plymouth 20 years ago.

For more information or a free brochure on the Massachusetts Maritime Trail, contact the Plymouth County Development Council, P. O.

LOCAL ARTISTS WORK ON DISPLAY AT CHANNEL 2 AUCTION PREVIEW

Sarah Benham of Dartmouth and Jeanie Webster of Mattapoisett are among the outstanding area artists whose work is on exhibit at the 1977 Channel 2 Auction Art & Antiques Preview now going on at the Prudential Center Tower Lobby, Boston.

Selected from more than 1500 art and antiques donated to this year's Auction, the local works now on display prior to the televised Auction include: "Trees Reflected in Water", a black and white photograph by Ms. Benham and "Boston Common/Boston Proper" by Ms. Webster.

The preview exhibition at the Prudential Center consists of 275 items donated by living artists, collectors, galleries, and antiques dealers. The public is invited to the preview which opened May 24th and continues through June 2nd. Bids may be placed on all preview items. Art and antiques displayed at the preview will be sold off on the Channel 2 Auction Sunday, June 5th, during the evening segment

FREEZIN' IS EASY

With today's modern methods, the making of a frozen dessert is nothing like the effort it once was—especially if you start with a package of Jell-O pudding and pie filling. First, it's cooked according to package directions and chilled. Next, it's beaten until creamy, and a container of Birds Eye Cool Whip non-dairy whipped topping is folded into the mixture. Freeze until firm, garnish with strawberry halves, then enjoy this simple lovely dessert, reminiscent of old-fashioned homemade ice cream.

PUDDING FREEZE

- 1 package (4-serving size) pudding and pie filling, any flavor except lemon
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 2 cups milk
- 1 container (4-1/2 oz.) frozen whipped topping, thawed

Combine pudding mix, sugar and milk in saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat. Cover surface with wax paper and chill. Beat pudding until creamy; blend in whipped topping. Pour into 8x4-inch loaf pan; freeze 1 hour. Spoon into bowl and beat with hand beater or electric mixer until smooth but not melted. Return to pan or a 1-quart mold, and freeze until firm, 3 to 4 hours. Serve with sweetened halved strawberries, if desired. Makes 1 quart or 6 to 8 servings.

Strawberry Pudding Freeze. Prepare Pudding Freeze as directed, using vanilla pudding and pie filling and folding in 3/4 cup sweetened crushed strawberries after beating partially frozen mixture.

FANCY THAT!

In an effort to protect consumer interests, the federal government has set up some 1,000 programs in 33 federal departments and agencies. Federal agencies designed to ride herd on businesses cost taxpayers about $4 billion a year.

Now Congress is considering bills to establish still another consumer agency to watch all the other watchdogs. To set up this super bureaucracy, taxpayers would have to come up with another $60 million for the first three years.

The federal government already employs nearly one percent of the U.S. population. The number of civil service workers in eight of the largest consumer service agencies is nearly 140,000.

will be judged in party dress modeling while those from ages thirteen to twenty-five will compete in formal wear along with the Mrs. Universal candidates. Our Little Miss, ages seven to twelve, and Ideal Miss, ages thirteen to seventeen, will also participate in talent.

The State Pageant will be held on June 19th and 20th at the Marriott Inn located in Newton, Massachusetts. Miss La Petite, ages three to six and Our Little Miss winners will advance to their World competition to be held in July in Niagara Falls, New York. Ideal Miss winners will participate in Baton Rouge, Louisiana for their world event, while the new Universal Girl and Mrs. Universal will be competing during the month of October in Las Vegas, Nevada. State winners will receive their expenses paid to the next level of competition.

Entry and pageant information may be obtained by writing to Mrs. Normand Thibault, 7 Gearty Road, Wilmington, Mass. 01887, or by calling 617-658-6479.
